

The Cinnamon Bear

Paddy O’Cinnamon

A picture book for little listeners

Episode One · from the 1937 Christmas radio serial

Judy and Jimmy live in a big house.

They are writing letters to Santa Claus.

Mother brings the Christmas boxes.

Gold balls! Silver tinsel! Shiny things!

The Silver Star shines on top.

But the Silver Star is gone!

Up, up, up the steep, steep stairs!

The attic is full of boxes.

Lift the big lid. One, two, three!

Look! A tiny, tiny bear!

Through the telescope, he looks BIG!

The bear sings. The bear growls. Garo!

‘My name is Paddy O’Cinnamon.’

A dragon took the star. ‘I will help!’
